DESCRIPTION: Thank you for your interest in participating in a diabetes-related research study. The purpose of this screening questionnaire is to create a clinical research registry from which investigators within the Stanford Diabetes Research Center can recruit participants. In order to find out whether you are eligible for particular studies, you will be asked to complete a pre-screening questionnaire. There are two steps involved in this pre-screening process: 1) consent to be screened via the questionnaire, and 2) if you agree to the consent, complete the online screening questionnaire to determine whether you are eligible to attend an in-person screening visit with one or more groups part of the Stanford Diabetes Research Center in the near or distant future. Your information will be kept as confidential as possible as required by law. This survey is encrypted for additional security.

TIME INVOLVEMENT: Your participation will take approximately 10 minutes to complete the questionnaire.

RISKS AND BENEFITS: There are no foreseeable risks associated with this pre-screening survey. You may benefit by becoming eligibile for one or more diabetes-related studies conducted at Stanford University. We cannot and do not guarantee or promise that you will receive any benefits from this study.

PAYMENTS: You will not receive payment for your participation.

PARTICIPANT'S RIGHTS: If you have read this form and have decided to participate in this project, please understand your participation is voluntary and you have the right to withdraw your consent or discontinue participation at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled. The alternative is not to participate. You have the right to refuse to answer particular questions. With your permission, your identity will be made known to research groups within the Stanford Diabetes Research Center for recruitment purposes only.
